LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT POLICY

Statement:

Marden Parish Council is an organisation in which learning is valued. Parish Councillors and staff will be supported to undertake the training and development which they need to help them achieve and maintain a high standard of performance and all will be given encouragement and support to achieve their full potential. This will allow them to provide a proper level of service to the people of Marden. It is a requirement of the Local Council Award Scheme that training should be undertaken especially on financial management for which Cllrs are responsible.

Objectives:

- Encourage Councillors and staff to undertake appropriate training and learning & development through in-house and external training.
- Allocate training in a fair manner
- Ensure that all training is evaluated to assess its value
- Provide financial support to attend training
- The Council expects the Clerk to undertake a programme of continuing professional development (CPD) in line with the requirements of their requisite professional body.

Benefits of Training/Learning & Development:

- Providing training yields a number of benefits:
- Improves the quality of the services and facilities that Marden Parish Council provides
- Enables the organisation to achieve its corporate aims and objectives
- Improves the skills base of the employees and Councillors
- Produces confident, highly qualified staff working as part of an effective and efficient team; and
- Demonstrates that the employees are valued

All are entitled to:

- Equality of opportunity in all aspects of their development
- An induction programme into their own roles as well as to the workings of Marden Parish Council.
- An understanding of the direction and objectives of the council
- An understanding of the contribution that is expected of them

For staff:

- Clear and measurable objectives for their performance at work
- Six monthly performance reviews of their performance, role and training needs
- A personal development plan which addresses their development needs

Corporate Training:

Corporate training is necessary to ensure that employees are aware of their legal responsibilities or corporate standards eg Health and Safety, Risk Management and Equal Opportunities. Employees will be required to attend training courses, workshops or seminars where suitable training is identified.

Keeping the Council Up to Date:

The Council pays an annual subscription to Kent Association of Local Councils and also to SLCC for the Clerk and Deputy Clerk. Regular publications are received from both these organisations and the websites are continually viewed for any training being offered.

Support for the Council

The Council is supported by Kent Association of Local Councils. The Council is also a member of Action with Communities in Rural Kent and the Institute of Cemetery and Crematorium. Specific training on legislative changes is provided by Maidstone Borough Council. The Clerk and Deputy Clerk are members of the Society of Local Councils.

Measure the Impact of Training:

Any Councillor or member of staff attending training provide feedback to the Council on their return - highlighting any relevant material to Councillors with regards to the working of the Parish Council.

Commitment to Officers and Councillors:

Marden Parish Council makes the following commitment to Councillors:

That every new Parish Councillor, whether elected or co-opted, will be trained to an adequate standard as set out by the Council and reflecting prevailing acceptance standards within a year of taking office. In addition skills audits will be acted upon to ensure specialist members receive additional training along with the bulk of the Council to take account of legislative changes and new initiatives.

Marden Parish Council makes the following commitment to its employees:

That they will be trained to an adequate standard as set out in prevailing legislation, Local Authority standards and reflecting the aspirations of the Council as soon as possible upon appointment and on an on-going and rolling programme reinforcing professional development.

A record of training undertaken by staff and Councillors will be recorded by the Clerk. Any training, workshops and seminars attended by Councillors during the course of their own employment, and which is relevant to Parish Council roles and responsibilities, will also be recorded.
